In a one-sided affair at Sportsman's Park the final score was the Chicago White Sox 11, the league door-mat St. Louis Browns 4.

Jack Wallaesa led the offense for Chicago. He slapped a single bringing in a run in the 4th inning, tripled in the 6th inning and bombed a two-run dinger in the 9th inning. Offensively, Chicago was a juggernaut. They scored in 6 separate innings.

The victory went to Eddie Lopat(14-12) who went 8 and 2/3 innings, allowing 4 runs. The loss was charged to Dizzy Dean(0-1). 'We really needed this win' said Ted Lyons. 'That first drink of water at the end of a drought sure does taste good!'

Walt Masterson took a no-hitter into the 6th inning and Mickey Vernon had 3 base hits and 3 RBI as the Washington Senators defeated the Cleveland Indians 3 to 1 at Griffith Stadium.

Masterson(15-10) pitched one of his finer games as he simply was too much for the Cleveland batters. He allowed just 4 hits and 2 walks in 9 innings. Masterson recorded 12 strikeouts. The right-handed Masterson lost his no-hit bid when Dale Mitchell singled with two outs in the 6th inning. Cleveland made it exciting in the 9th, but they were unable to push the needed runs across.

Bob Kuzava(1-1) was the loser. Masterson was pleased with his performance. He noted, 'I had good zip on my pitches. Just as important, my location was right on. The fans really got into the game too - that always helps me. Now, if I can only do that again in my next outing.'

It was the 4th shutout of the year for Kinder(10-13). The losing pitcher was Pete Gebrian(8-6). When questioned about his counterpart after the game, Gebrian was lavish in his praise, 'It was obvious very early on that we were going to be in for a long night. Kinder brought his 'A' game with him - he had good stuff and was able to spot it perfectly. He probably only made one or two bad pitches the entire game!
