

Available Roles for Audition

Main Cast

These characters are central to the storyline and require strong performances to capture their unique personalities and motivations.

1. Cleopatra

- Queen of Egypt: Cleopatra is charismatic, intelligent, and passionate. She possesses a complex blend of charm, emotional depth, and strategic acumen, using her allure and wit to command loyalty and influence.

2. Antony

- Roman General: A powerful and respected leader, Antony is torn between his duty to Rome and his intense love for Cleopatra. He embodies strength and loyalty but is also prone to impulsiveness and internal conflict.

3. Charmian

- Cleopatra's Attendant: Loyal, sharp-witted, and caring, Charmian serves as Cleopatra's confidante and advisor. She is deeply devoted to her queen, offering both support and insight.

4. Enobarbus

- Antony's Trusted Friend: A seasoned soldier with a pragmatic outlook, Enobarbus is loyal to Antony but often views events with a cynical eye. His honesty and insight make him a keen observer of Antony's struggles.

5. Alexas

- Servant to Cleopatra: Alexas is persuasive, manipulative, and loyal to Cleopatra, often acting as a go-between and scheming to maintain favor within Cleopatra's court.

6. Iras

- Cleopatra's Attendant: Iras is another loyal attendant to Cleopatra, compassionate and devoted, embodying a quiet strength and steadfastness in her service to the queen.

7. Caesar

- Roman Leader: Young, ambitious, and calculating, Caesar is a powerful force in Roman politics. He is calm and authoritative, with a keen sense of strategy and an unyielding drive to achieve his goals.

8. Lepidus

- Third Triumvir: Lepidus is the weakest of the Roman triumvirs, often showing a lack of decisiveness and strength. Though aligned with Antony and Caesar, he struggles to assert his authority.

9. Menas

- Pirate: Menas is bold, opportunistic, and unafraid to test boundaries.

10. Agrippa

- Roman Soldier and Advisor to Caesar: Loyal and capable, Agrippa is Caesar's advisor, providing sound counsel and unwavering support in both strategy and military matters.

11. Eros

- Loyal Attendant to Antony: Eros is deeply devoted to Antony, showing steadfast loyalty and a willingness to sacrifice for his master.

12. Maecenas

- Advisor to Caesar: Maecenas is a pragmatic, supportive advisor, providing Caesar with strategic guidance and showing loyalty to Rome's political order.

Named Characters with Minor Roles

These characters appear briefly but add depth to key moments.

1. Soothsayer

- Fortune Teller: Mysterious and enigmatic, the Soothsayer warns characters of their fate, adding an element of foreboding to the story.

2. Canidius

- General Under Antony: Loyal to Antony, Canidius is a competent soldier who sometimes questions Antony's choices, reflecting the growing tensions within Antony's camp.

3. Scarus

- Soldier in Antony's Army: Brave and outspoken, Scarus is a dedicated warrior who admires Antony and remains loyal despite difficult circumstances.

4. Ambassador

- Roman Diplomat: The Ambassador serves as a diplomatic figure, relaying important messages and acting as a link between Rome's leadership and other factions.

5. Thidias

- Caesar's Messenger: Thidias is loyal to Caesar and is tasked with negotiating with Cleopatra, often navigating tense situations with tact.
 - 6. Diomedes
 - Cleopatra's Servant: Trusted and loyal, Diomedes assists Cleopatra, showing dedication to her safety and interests.
 - 7. Proculeius
 - Roman Soldier: Proculeius is loyal to Caesar, executing commands with precision and representing Rome's authority.
 - 8. Dolabella
 - Caesar's Officer: Compassionate and empathetic, Dolabella shows kindness to Antony and Cleopatra in their struggles, displaying a gentler side of Caesar's forces.
 - 9. Clown
 - Comic Relief: The Clown provides a brief moment of humor amidst the drama, delivering a memorable scene with Cleopatra near the play's end.
-

Unnamed Characters with Minor Roles

These characters have brief appearances but add depth to the world.

- Antony's Messenger
 - Delivers messages and updates within Antony's camp.
- Antony's Soldier / Officer / Captain
 - Loyal members of Antony's forces, embodying Roman military discipline and loyalty.
- First Watch
 - A guard figure, representing the alertness and vigilance of Antony's camp.
- Caesar's Sentry / Guard
 - Loyal to Caesar, enforcing his authority and command within Roman territories.
- First Guard
 - A protective presence, often interacting with Cleopatra and her attendants.
- Egyptian
 - Represents the local Egyptian populace, loyal to Cleopatra and embodying the culture and values of her court.